February 12, 1934 - April 6, 2024

Hampton Falls ~ Carol Kelley Fermery of Hampton Falls, NH, passed away peacefully in her home on April 6, 2024 a few short months after her 90th birthday. She was born on February 12, 1934 in White Plains, NY, the daughter of the late Frank J. and Hazelle (Vallette) Kelley.

Carol graduated from Briarcliff High School in Briarcliff, NY with the Class of 1951. She later graduated from the St. Luke's School of Nursing in New York, NY as a Registered Nurse. Carol and Jack retired to Hampton Falls, NH in 1996, where Carol worked at Talbots in Stratham for 10 years. Carol and Jack spent many hours tending their flower gardens, and took pride and joy in their work. Their gardens received admiration from friends, neighbors, and passersby, and received numerous accolades from the community. Carol was never without a feline friend, and she was an avid supporter of local animal rescue organizations.

Carol was preceded in death by her siblings Laurence, Donald and Marjorie Snow, Frank Kelley Jr., and her beloved granddaughter, Deniece Clancy.
