“Carol was the first coworker I met when I joined Lonza, and she remained as someone I worked directly with for nearly two years after. She was so full of joy, despite having to put up with three young men who were at times as smart as a box of hair. She treated us all like sons, and made working with her a joy every day. She'll be greatly missed. My sincere condolences to her family and to her other friends.

I went to High School with her. It was wonderful connecting on facebook and enjoyed her flea market jewelry finds, her rock show adventures, and especially spending time with her daughters. Wishing her family strength through this difficult time. She was a wonderful person and will be missed by many. With deepest sympathy.
