

Carol E. Richards

June 18, 1941 - December 12, 2025

Greenland – Carol E. Richards, 84, a beloved resident of Greenland for the past 25 years, passed away peacefully on Friday, December 12, 2025, after a brief illness.

Born on June 18, 1941, in Worcester, MA, Carol was the daughter of the late Ellsworth and Esther (Harris) Corson. Raised in Franklin, NH, she married her first husband, the late Allan W. Palmer, and together they moved to Concord, NH, where she lovingly raised her family.

Carol dedicated her entire career to New England Telephone, where she worked for over 32 years before retiring in 1992.

She was an avid and talented baker and seamstress whose faith was a guiding force throughout her life. Carol enjoyed gardening, the ocean, and cherished time with her family at Lake Winnepesaukee.

She was predeceased by her second husband, Robert Richards.

Carol is survived by her daughter, Diane P. Allaire and her husband Dean of Hampton; her granddaughter, Andie R. Allaire and her siblings, Janet Perry of Hampton, Kathy Cook and her husband Don of Rye, and Judy Warcewicz and her husband Jerry of Epping, NH.

A celebration of life will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations in Carol's name may be made to your local food bank, SPCA, or Audubon Society.

Tribute Wall

AM

“ I love you so much Auntie Carol! I miss you already! I'll miss our chats and bumping into you at random places like the dump and the grocery store. Enjoy your next chapter, til we meet again ”

Amy Cook Miglorie - January 06 at 07:15 PM

MS

“ Our condolences to Carole's family. She was a lovely woman. Matt & Michelle Sargent ”

Michelle Sargent - December 21, 2025 at 06:54 PM

DE

“ A warm and welcoming presence who made our neighborhood feel more like home. You are missed. Debbie ”

Debbie - December 19, 2025 at 12:12 PM

“ David Nudd lit a candle in memory of Carol E. Richards ”

David Nudd - December 18, 2025 at 01:02 PM

You will always remain within my heart and prayers. I love you. Kathy kathy conant - December 18, 2025 at 03:14 PM