“ To the family of Carol, please accept my deepest condolences. I was one of Carol's classmates in the North Hampton Elementary School and at Winnacunnet. I recall visiting her when she was helping out at Solari's grill and we went sledding together at a local hill in North Hampton. She was a lovely girl and young woman and although we lost touch in later years, I will always remember her smile and friendship. Sincerely, Abby Rogers Cooper

“Bob: I just learned of Carol's passing this morning. I am so sorry. Betty and I had so many memories of Carol. She was so very kind, and she had a good heart. You and Carol were our good neighbors, the very best. Now Carol, with Betty, is with the Lord. In this Christmas season, Let's you and I take heart in the hope of salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord. Not exactly a "merry" Christmas, but a blessed one, because God is faithful.

“So sorry to read of the death of your mom, Jason. Although I didn't know her, I do know that she raised a loving son in you and also your brother and sister. Losing a mom, no matter the time, is always difficult. Knowing that she is no longer suffering must be some comfort to you. Please accept my sincere condolences. Thankfully, you have Patsy and your two adorable daughters to help you remember all the wonderful memories you have of your mom. I will be sending only good thoughts your way. Fondly, Mary Potter

“ Carol was my BEST FRIEND. No matter how long between visits, she remained the same loving, laughing, and steadfast friend. We met in High School and continued our friendship through her marriage to Bob and mine to Dennis.

We breakfasted at The Golden Egg, shopped, ate lunch in many venues, and then shopped more!

I watched Chris, Jason, and Jessica grow into beautiful, caring adults as a result of her loving "mothering". Was stunned when she was diagnosed, as she had such a sharp mind. Her cookies were legendary for their delicious and varied selections. She was a true Christian in all ways.

Anyone who called her friend was the better for having known her. I will always be thankful to be her friend and know the family for the last 54 years. I keep you all in prayers, surrounding you with love, healing light, and peace.
