“ One thing I always remember about Aunt Catherine is how sweet she was. I never heard her ever say anything bad about anyone! Her life was a testimony of going with the flow. If she was given lemons she made lemonade! She had an awesome disposition! She was someone to look up too! I used to say, my Dad's oldest sister and youngest brother is still alive but now I will have to say she is now with my Dad! When I think of Aunt Catherine she was always on a schedule! She was a character in many ways. She would always share a smile with you! Even when we went to Plum Island at Nana's cottage and everyone was doing this and that.....she always wore a smile for all! We will miss you! Now you can enjoy the streets of gold and all those who have gone before you. God Bless you Aunt Catherine! xoxoxo
