

Catherine F. Orlandino

July 18, 1936 - August 5, 2021

Seabrook, NH – Catherine F. Orlandino, 85, of Seabrook and a former life-long resident of Boston’s North End, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her loving family, on Thursday, August 5, 2021. Catherine was born in Boston on July 18, 1936, a daughter of the late Armando and Josephine (Carabissi) Lepore.

Catherine graduated from Julie Billiart Central High School in 1954. She married shortly after graduation and raised her family in the North End. Her family was her life and she loved spending time with them. A great Italian cook, Catherine enjoyed cooking meals for her family and friends that her mother taught her to prepare. She graduated from Bryant and Stratton College as a lab technician. She especially loved her home in Boston and was proud of her upbringing in the North End. She also enjoyed watching the Red Sox, going to the beach and volunteering for the Jimmy Fund, for which she won multiple awards for volunteer of the year. Known as “Noni” to everyone that knew her, her biggest blessing was watching her great grandson, Logan, grow up this last year.

She is survived by her daughter, Josephine O’Brien and her husband, Liam “Bill” of Seabrook, her son Edward Pires of Florida, her granddaughter, Jamie Rich, her husband, Robert, and their son, Logan of Seabrook, her granddaughter Danielle Downes of Florida, her sister, Loretta Corbeil of Swampscott, MA and her nephew, Gregory Santosuosso also of Swampscott. She is predeceased by her grandson Jason Pires.

A Graveside Service will be held at 11 AM on Wednesday, August 25, 2021 at the Hillside Cemetery, Rt 1 in Seabrook. In lieu of flowers donations may be made in her name to The Jimmy Fund at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute (<https://www.jimmyfund.org/>) P.O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168.
