

Charleen A. Dow

July 11, 1943 - March 19, 2016

Seabrook – Charleen A. “Charl” Dow, 72, of Seabrook, died suddenly on Saturday, March 19, 2016 at the Exeter Hospital.

Charleen was born in Newburyport, MA on July 11, 1943, a daughter of the late Dana and Harriet (Eaton) Knowles.

She was a lifelong resident of Seabrook and was married to George W. Dow in 1967. Charl had previously worked at Welpro Shoe and had been employed as a sales associate at Walmart in Portsmouth for the last 20 years. She loved her job at Walmart and especially enjoyed being with her co-workers.

Charleen was a skilled seamstress and quilter. She was always sewing gifts to give to her family members and had won numerous ribbons for crafting. She loved going antiquing with her sisters and extended family. Charl was a huge sports fanatic. Nothing made her happier than being in front of her enormous flat screen television, watching NASCAR or baseball games with the volume turned way up. She absolutely loved baseball and had visited numerous major league parks across the country. Charl also loved animals, especially her horses. Charl truly enjoyed spending time with her sisters-in-law and her many nieces and nephews.

She is survived by her husband, George Dow of Seabrook and her beloved niece, Myrna Kelley of Seabrook. She also leaves her loving sisters, Joyce Brown of Seabrook, Myrna Sargent of Preston, CT, Betty Janvrin of Seabrook and Lillian Vail of Seabrook.

In addition to her parents, Charl was predeceased by her brother, Dana Knowles.

At Charl's request, all services will be private.

I had the great pleasure of working with Charleen. I always admired her straightforwardness, kindness, and work ethic. No matter what was going on in her life, Charleen always had a smile on her face. I am thankful to have gotten to know her and will treasure my special memories of her.

“ Charleen was an awesome friend to my mother Marion, who worked with her at Welpro. I will never forget the trips I got to take with her to see the Red Sox in NY and at spring training. My heart goes out to Myra and the rest of her beloved family.

“ I had so much fun with Charl when we worked at WM!!! God, we had some gut wrenching laughs! We use to go antiquing all the time on Rt 4, she'd be looking for rings & jewelry and me for my old books. We had some really awesome times together.

Charl, I'm so sorry that I didn't come visit you after I moved back from Florida. You were a truly good person and a trusted friend. I suck so much, please forgive me. You have no idea how grateful I am for all the silly, funny memories we made & all of our time together. I'll never forget you.

Myrna, I am truly & sincerely sorry for the loss of Charl in your life. I cannot imagine the void it must leave in your heart. Many blessings to get you through this difficult time.

“ She will be sadly missed by so many that know her. She spent a lot of time teaching others about handling of horses and how to love them. Our family was blessed with her knowledge and help growing up.

“Charl was a amazing person, I have known her for years and years. Her sister Lill is my best friend. All the sisters used to just hop in the van and go where they ended up ohhhh the stories they had of thier adventure would have you laughing for weeks. RIP Charl and keep an eye out for Dana. Love you and you are gonna be truely missed by many
