

Charles "Duck" Boetti

May 7, 1955 - June 6, 2015

Hampton – Charles E. “Duck” Boetti, 60, of Hampton, formerly of Haverhill, Mass., died Saturday, June 6, 2015 at his home after a courageous battle with esophageal cancer.

He was born in Newport News, VA, May 7, 1955 a son of the late Ernest and Priscilla (McNally) Boetti and was raised in Haverhill spending his summers at Seabrook Beach.

He was employed as a horse trainer for over 20 years working the circuit in the southern states. He considered himself a real cowboy. After moving back to New England and to Hampton three years ago, he was employed in the art screen printing business.

He leaves his wife, Janice (Luongo) Boetti, a stepson, Ryan Gray both of Hampton; a son, his brother, Phillip Boetti and his sister, Cheryl Mainiero both of Newmarket, as well as two nieces, a great nephew, and a great niece.

He was predeceased by his son Christopher Greene.

Private services will be held at the convenience of the family. The family suggests donations to the American Cancer Society, PO Box 22718, Oklahoma City, OK 73123-1718

“ Hello, my name is Patti griffin. I studied dancing under Priscilla McNally. Chuck was a few years younger. He use to be at the dance classes along with his grandmother Mrs. White. Those were the best days of my life. Chuck and I use to dance the swing and fool Round like kids do. I now live in mexico and was thinking of Priscilla, closing my eyes and thinking of all the fun we had. I hope you find this message and know that your husband made me and others smile. I still have all the pictures. God bless you and your family..

“ Chuck was the birth father of my two sons, Christopher M. Green (deceased in 1999) and Jason P. Green. Legally, he was not their father, giving up his parental rights to my second husband Brian Green, who was really the only man that my two boys called "Dad".

I have just discovered that he was my brother... Apparently my dad and Priscilla were involved in the summer of 1954. Her stepfather, Charlie White told my mother what was going on after the baby was born.
