“ Back in 1971-72 I worked with “Manager” Charlie at Prescott Farms family grocery store in Seabrook NH. Charlie was the man everyone looked up to, maybe it was because he had a VW bug that fit 6. We would cruise Hampton Beach with the V dub packed to the gills. Most of us went our separate ways after graduation in 72. Charlie was a friend, and someone who we thought the world of. Yes, he was very patient and very patient dealing with the customers. I have often thought of Charlie until I scoped him out on FB last year. We communicated a little, which meant a lot to me. Charlie will always be loved by whomever was lucky enough to know him. May you Rest In Peace good buddy!
