“ Leslie, Jared, Derek, Erich and all his grandchildren, my family and I are very saddened to hear of Rusty’s passing. We are fortunate to be blessed with 30 years of Rusty stories. First and foremost, there isn’t anything Rusty wouldn’t do for someone that needed him. He always ended a conversation with “if there is anything you need, please call me.” He was kind, generous, loyal and most of all fun. Some of my best vacations and fondest moments were shared with him and Leslie. We are blessed just having known him and we wish his family solace at this very sad time.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of Rusty. He has been a part of the family as long as I have been a part of this family. I don't remember many holidays where his smiling face wasn't there. He will be missed.

“ Rusty's wife Leslie is one of my dearest friends,so I feel badly that I never got to meet Rusty...I've always enjoyed hearing her stories about Rusty and their dog Coco,often ending in..."and now those two are taking a nap together".... Sometimes followed by a photo to prove it 😊 Leslie,there are truly no appropriate words to convey the sorrow I feel on your behalf....Your GOS girls love and support you unconditionally 📄❤️🙏🕊️ I love you,my friend....Marisa
