“ A beloved Aunt is now at peace. She was a beautiful person and always able to make me feel seen and loved. I have countless, wonderful memories of her kindness, witty laugh, infectious smile and incredible singing voice. There was nothing like hearing the 3 sisters sing together, usually over Christmas dishes! Her hospitality was unmeasured, sharing her beach home in Hampton with all of us. She loved with her whole heart , not only her immediate family, but those of us blessed to have her as an aunt. I will miss you, Auntie. You lived life well....

“ The sweetest soul has moved on. Enjoy your hugs with Uncle Bill and cousin Christine. The times with you at Hampton beach, walking to the rocky shores, coming back to cook a London broil, eating outside and keeping the greenheads at bay will remain in my thoughts forever.

Aunty Claire surely could talk, she loved to do that, but man could she listen. Looking you directly in the eye, nodding her head, hearing it all, and offering her honest opinion in such a loving way.

Heaven got much better...

Love,

David.
