

Colleen R. Eaton

July 22, 1934 - July 5, 2015

Seabrook, NH – Colleen R. Eaton, 80, of Seabrook, died peacefully Sunday, July 5, 2015 at Exeter Hospital surrounded by her loving family.

She was born in Seabrook on July 22, 1934 a daughter of the late Eugene and Clara (Janvrin) Littlefield. A lifelong resident of Seabrook she attended local schools.

Mrs. Eaton first worked at New England Wood Heel in Amesbury, MA for 34 years. She later worked for Yankee Grey Hound as their second hire when they opened in 1976, retiring in 2004.

While working at Yankee Grey Hound she also worked with her husband as an owner operator of Eaton Shellfish in Seabrook.

Colleen was a member of the Rand Memorial Church and Raymond E. Walton American legion Auxiliary Unit 70 both of Seabrook. Her greatest joy was spending time with her family. She took great pride in keeping her house clean and decorating it nicely. She also enjoyed spending time at her camp in Bartlett, shopping and car rides around town.

Colleen is survived by her husband of 64 years Elliot L. Eaton who she meet and fell in love with at Veterans Memorial Park, Seabrook; daughters, Evelyn Felch and her husband Tom of Seabrook, Barbara Ward of Seabrook, Joy

MacKenzie and her husband Scott of Seabrook; brother Walter Littlefield and his wife Claire of Hudson, FL; sisters, Carol Markos and her husband Ted of Seabrook, Josephine Knowles of Seabrook, Jean Moore and her husband Bob of Seabrook, Emily Sanborn of Seabrook; grandchildren, Wayne Felch, Erin Reed, Elliot Johnson, Vera Ross and Brent and Kristen MacKenzie; 9 great grandchildren, 3 great great children, sister in law Alice Randall and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

In addition to her parents she was predeceased by her brothers, Austin Randall and Paul Littlefield; sister Evelyn Daneau; son in law Michael Ward and brother in laws, Asa Knowles, Ernie Sandborn and Paul Daneau.

Visiting hours will be from 4 to 7 PM Thursday, July 9, 2015 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Services will be held at 11 AM on Friday in the Rand Memorial Church, 134 South Main Street, Seabrook. Burial will follow in the Wildwood Cemetery.

“ Missing you more than you know Aunt Colleen. You're beautiful spirit will forever rest inside my heart. You and I became so close over the past month that I'm not sure it's going to be easy for me to get over this. But I know you're resting and I know my Grampa will take good care of you up there. I love you with all my heart, and more.

*Love your Great Niece,
Jackie*❤️

“ My prayers to each of you for your loss,, words don't seem enough at times like this. But we can keep her close in our hearts as she certainly touched each heart of every person she came in contact with. This family was so blessed to have Colleen as their matriarch for such a long time. You are missed Colleen but most of all LOVED Misti

“ Colleen is one of the most wonderful, caring lady I have ever known. She loves her family and I'm so glad my son, Scott, married Joy because he became part of her family. Colleen was so involved in all her grandchildren's sports and activities. I will miss her and am so fortunate to have known her all these years.

Joy loved her mother so much and helped her so much through this difficult past year. Elliot was such a great husband to her and he will miss her so much.

“ Heaven received another beautiful soul when Colleen left this earth Sunday. I have had her and her husband Elliott as neighbors for 37 years and could not ask for nicer people in this world. Always there to help when needed or just to chat. I will miss her very much but know her suffering is over and now in Gods hands. Love you neighbor, go fly with the angels.
