“ Daniel Wilichoski was blessed to have me as a birthday present. We used to share every birthday together and when we couldn't he would call me. I have some very fond memories of going to my first concert with him, having his dog Conan drag me down the street, going for rides in his CJ7, camping in Dolly Copp, Uncle Dan's Military Training School with my brother Johnny. You were the first person there with Nana when I had my first child. Alyssa remembers going to Salem on Halloween with you and the motorcycle parade. Aerosmith was your favorite group along with Boston and Styx to name a few. You are physically gone but I know you are still here watching over us.

I love you!

“ Uncle Dan, to me you were always the "cool" uncle (don't tell Uncle Joe) who taught me so much stuff that will always stay with me. I remember getting to stay up later when you watched the Wizard of Oz with us, you gave me my first motorcycle ride (though I was secretly scared to death!!!) and I have never been able to listen to Aerosmith without thinking of you. I have so many good memories of you I always smile whenever I think of you. I will always remember camping in the white mountains and I still, to this day, can NOT go down Nana's cellar without being afraid and feeling like there is someone down there hiding and watching me, reminding me of the man with the golden arm!!! To this day, whenever I go down there at night I always end up running up the stairs two at a time....ha ha ha. I have never forgotten that!!! Thanks for always making me laugh. I will miss you and know that you will watch over us and keep us all in line like "Uncle Dan's Military School". I will always keep you with me in my thoughts and in my heart. Love you always, Christine Puopolo

“ Dan..where to start. I will always be grateful for having you and Tina in my life. You are truly an incredible incredible man. You were my work husband, my friend, my prime rib partner, a great "uncle" to Dunkin & Abby (a.k.a. the corn kids) and I am truly honored to have known you. I stood beside you and watched you kick cancers a, you fought a long hard battle and I am still in awe of your courage. You loved your wife like no other and always told her every chance you got. You taught me that with cable ties and electrical tape you can fix anything. You made all of us laugh every single day at work no matter how you felt. I will be a better person for knowing you, I will take all our many memories and keep them tucked away in my heart and I will never forget you. I could say so much more but I will leave some space for others, for now Dan.....Godspeed and behave up there until we are all together again. Love you!

“ Dan... you mean more to me than anyone will ever know. We shared such a strong bond together, and that bond will never be broken. You are the strongest man I have ever known and have taught me many many things. You were my soulmate, my best friend, and the greatest love of my life. You made me laugh even in the toughest of times. We shared so many things together and made so many great memories; camping, snow storms, sunday drives, ice cream in the thunder storm, the dollar store, Disney..... A piece of me went with you on that day and I will never be the same. There was never a day that went by that we didn't tell each other how much we loved one another, and I will continue to tell you that I love you until the day that I see you again and can wisper it in your ear again. I LOVE YOU BABY

Until I see you again.....T

“ *Danny you were my brother and best friend, yes we had our days but it was all worked out. We had some great times and memories of camping and rock concerts and many things, I think you know what I am talking about. I will sadly miss you and always have great memories of our life's journey as a great family member and friend dad and uncle.. Danny, rest in peace because you had a long and hard journey in life and you deserve it. I will some day see you in the fields of Dolly Cop to relive the days we had there because we loved it there so much. Thanks Mom and Dad for starting the memories of The White Mountains.
