“ Its been three years since my Dad passed away, I think about him everyday and how he would handle a situation. He taught me so much in my time with him . I miss him but I have faith that someday I will see him again,

“ *Mr. Foley was one of the most challenging and fascinating professors that I had at Ball State. His high standards and his uncompromising quest for excellence have been an inspiration to me for decades. I am grateful to have been his student, and I shall always remember him fondly. “ Growing up there were some of my friends Dads that I thought were nice, some I thought were strange, and one I thought was the best of all. That one was my friends’ Laura and Julie’s Dad, Mr. Foley. It didn’t matter if it was the third time that day that I had shown up at their house, pounding on the door, he always greeted me with that great smile and sparkle in his eye. “Come on in!” he would say as if it were the first time he had seen me in a week. Yes Mr. Foley, you were my favorite. I hope you are catching some great wind in heaven.
Love,
