“ My condolences to the Gagne family during this difficult time. As one of Anthony's teachers at Winnacunnet High School I got to know David as a tremendous supporter of his son and the music department here. He gave hours of his time and energy to help our program and was always the first person to volunteer to help anytime we needed something. He was a great person and a great friend.

“ Dear Nancy, Anthony, David jr., Rebecca, grandchilds and all family. I am profoundly affected by David's departure. I can only remember how Good and Loving he was. David Sr from the day we first talk on the phone, as I absolutely wanted him to be present in our wedding, was kind. We bounded immediately. This respectful, loving link never stopped and will never stop. We checked on each other once in a while. I am so grateful to have met him. I am far but be sure that I assist, support you in all my thoughts and prays. May he found release and peace after such pain. May I say, I Hope to see you again... Sincères condoléances to you all. I will always love you. Au revoir. Marianne and my son Davalga.
