

David Vincent Jones

October 14, 1969 - December 15, 2024

Hampton – David Vincent Jones, 55, of Hampton, passed away unexpectedly at Mass General Hospital on Sunday, December 15, 2024. He was born in Boston, MA, on October 14, 1969, and was the son of the late Jacquelyn (Blackwell) Jones.

Born and raised in Boston, David graduated from Boston Tech, Class of 1988. He went on to study at Bunker Hill Community College and earned a bachelor's degree in social work from Lesley University. At the time of his passing, he was continuing his studies at Merrimack College in pursuit of a master's degree.

David worked as an Uber and Lyft driver, a job he truly enjoyed because it allowed him to meet new people and brighten their days.

Right before the pandemic in November 2019, David met the love of his life, Amanda (Boucher). The two fell in love and were married on October 24, 2020, sharing four beautiful years together.

David had a zest for life and a kind, generous spirit. He loved playing cards, especially Whist with friends every Saturday night in Saugus MA. He enjoyed music, singing, dancing, and long drives with Amanda by his side. Traveling was another favorite pastime, but his true passion lay in caring for his family and helping others. David volunteered at the Bread of Life Soup Kitchen in Malden, MA, and was always the first to lend a hand to anyone in need.

Left to cherish his memory are his beloved wife, Amanda Jones of Hampton NH; his sister, Tasha Jones of Randolph MA; his nephew, CJ Johnson of Randolph MA; as well as countless extended family members and friends who will miss his warm, outgoing, and loving spirit.

A celebration of David's life will be planned at a later date. Please check back for updates.

Tribute Wall

AK

“ Mandy, I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved David. I was always touched by the photos you shared of the two of you and the joy you clearly felt with each other. Wishing you much comfort and love at this time.

Alice Kinahan - December 21, 2024 at 03:13 PM

NN

“ I remember David with such a smile! As a fellow card player we were so lucky to hear his entertaining gift of story telling. His ' appropriate ' sense of humor, his wit at cards. David 'transformed ' others trauma with sincere and caring comments and always brought a positive spin on life. He was a stylish gentleman who could wear a hat like no other! He delighted in his stories of Mandy, her mom and the dog, and ofcourse his stash of transformer toys! David will be sadly missed as one of the good guys! A perfect 6 NoTrump! We salute you and love you!
Nancy N.

Nancy Nugent - December 20, 2024 at 08:42 PM

SL

“ Mandy,
I am one of David's friends in the Saugus card group. You and I have never met, but I was lucky to have known David. I was so sorry to hear of David's passing and I wanted to reach out to you. May you know that many are thinking of you at this difficult time.
Suzanne LaPointe

Suzanne LaPointe - December 19, 2024 at 07:30 PM

DT

“ Diane Trovato lit a candle in memory of David Vincent Jones

Diane Trovato - December 19, 2024 at 06:22 PM

DT

“ I am so sadden by David's passing. It was like the wind was knocked out of me. David had a great sense of humor and spirit about him. He surely would be the first person to help if needed, without hesitation. I met David a few years ago when he started coming to our cards and gaming group on Tue nights in Malden. He has talked about his sister and nephew then, people dear to him. His love for Mandy was soon the talk, as David knew she was the one! David loved ladies in high heels and he once received a gift of stilettos that he couldn't wait to go home and give to Mandy! RIP David and know you were loved. Mandy, Tasha and CJ, hold onto your memories, may they live forever in your hearts.

Diane Trovato - December 19, 2024 at 06:22 PM

PS

“ Mandy, we're so sorry for your loss; we'd been worried over the past couple of weeks that we weren't hearing from him and I was telling the ihop Squirrels that I'd have to drive up to you to find what was going on. I'm sorry, now, that I didn't do that when I got his cryptic text the first weekend. We're missing him and we're more certain now that we should've pushed harder for David to bring you with him. Please remember we're available for you at any time...
Paul and Tracey

paul g stonkus - December 19, 2024 at 05:17 PM

JW

“ Love to you Mandy. I remember your happiness after finding your true love David. When I met him in person I was struck by his comfort and care he showed you and your mom upon your dad’s passing. A wonderful compassionate man and your soulmate. May your memories bring you comfort.

Janice Wilson - December 18, 2024 at 05:02 PM

JR

“ Mandy, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your husband. I hope that with time the good memories far outweigh the trauma of his passing. Sending you all my love, Jenn (Weihrauch) Richardson, BG classmate

Jenn Richardson - December 18, 2024 at 11:00 AM

DP

“ No words can express the sympathy we feel for the loss of your soulmate, best friend, and husband...we love you.

Deb and Paul - December 18, 2024 at 10:49 AM

KM

“ Mandy, there are no words to truly express my deep sympathy for your loss. I so treasure the afternoon that I spent with you and David and your mom after your dad passed away. Listening to you and David talk so lovingly about your first meeting and how you found your soulmates in each other was so special. I wish I could say something that could take your pain away. Your family has always known the way through sorrow with authenticity and humor. May you find reasons to smile and memories to treasure. Know that you are the joy of so many people’s lives and David will be with you always. With much love, Kelly McCoy

Kelly McCoy - December 18, 2024 at 10:38 AM

MW

“ Amanda, I am so sorry for your loss, and I am so happy for the time, albeit way too short, that you had with your David. I hope you feel the love surrounding you through this time and know that your old college roomies are always thinking of, praying for, and loving over you.

Missy Woodall - December 18, 2024 at 09:41 AM

KL

Amanda words can never express how very sorry we are to hear of David's passing. I know how truly you loved him and am very grateful for the time he was able to be with you and your family. May you find some comfort in knowing how much you are loved and were loved by him. No amount of time is long enough. Prayers sending your way.

Kim L - December 18, 2024 at 10:00 AM