“ I think of Dave often. I hadn't seen him in years but have many memories of his humor and kindness. I haven't been back to Concord in years but look forward to visiting a place that holds Dave, Shayne, and Ryan together. Sending love to his family and friends. -xo- Molly

“ David is at Blossom Hill. His stones will still be another month or so, but he's there now. (David is upper right, our mom is lower left). Please use this map instead of the google map. I marked the wrong spot on that one.

“ This is a better map of David's location in the cemetery. Please BE CAREFUL on the corner before the pond. It is not a one way, and that is where my neck was ruined. Until David's stones are completed, you can find him if you look for the tree with Shayne and Ryan's bench under it. He will be one row back from there.

Maggie, I am so sorry to hear about Dave. During some tough times my son and I worked with Dave at Red Lobster. He was a polite young man and we all got along well. My son and Dave still stayed in touch over the years and I am connected to him via his LinkedIn account. I had tried contacting Dave in November or December last year to let him know that my son had died from Covid 19. I wasn't aware Dave had passed away until today. My heartfelt condolences to you and your family...gone too soon. Respectfully, Barbara Boucher

Oh no, Barbara, Scott died?? I so sorry, he was a sweet guy. I think I last saw him when he was living in Manchester in a townhouse, maybe with you?

I have a photo of him from the 90s helping grill something on my back porch. If I find it I will try to get a copy to you. I deleted Facebook but maybe someone will help me get it to you.

I am so sorry for your loss.

Hey Maggie, It's been many years, and I just heard about Dave, I'm really sorry. I go to blossom Hill often to talk with Shayne, I will visit your brother when I go. My thoughts are with you, Jonny Barton...

“ David will be at Blossom Hill Cemetery bu October.
He's 4 spaces to the left of Shayne and Ryan. (The blue spot on the attached overview of the cemetery.)
We chose a money green bench for a headstone, it will say Konze on both sides so it should be easy to spot, except the stone will take about 6-9 weeks to be in place.

“ I have such fond memories of Dave--from playing outfield together in Little League, to hanging out all through junior high and high school. He was one of the smartest people I've ever met and so hilarious and fun. But more than anything, he was kind. I am so sad to learn of his passing. May his memory be a blessing.

“ I can't believe my sweet little brother is gone. My first memory was him being born in our house at Emerald Lake. He recently told me his first memory was wading through the muck in Emerald Lake to pluck a flower from a lily pad for me because his sister wanted one. He was the sweetest little boy, a wonderful bother, and a brilliant, generous, kind man. He loved his friends like they were family. I am so grateful for those friends who helped him when he needed help, and who stepped up to help now too. I am so grateful for his long time girlfriend Karen, his lifelong college buddies Moreau, Shurty, and Cugini; and of course the Concord kids: Tracy, the Laslies, the Salyer Siblings, and the Donovan family. Please forgive me for forgetting anyone. He loved you all. David will have a plot at Blossom Hill eventually. Please visit him when you're in the area.

“ Me and my family only knew Dave and Sam for three years. I'll explain who sam is later .And In that short amount of time he became family to me my wife and kids we all love him. We would talk for hours about the most random stuff. And exchange stories of our lives . He would say “ E Funk your younger then me but your very intelligent. And coming from a guy like me . “ do not take that lightly “ and would say “ you get it “ after a long text or discussion.My wife would say we were so weird . And would drive her nuts. Lol .Talking about the fibonacci sequence . Politics him being a straight up Trump supporter A republican and me being no justices no peace.we both over Analyze everything. And had fun doing it together. I told him “ perfect paranoia is perfect protection” he loved it . And said he would use it but wouldn't take credit and he told the truth . He had a amazing mind. And big heart he would help anyone. He drove in a blizzard from Andover to dc to see his grandmother Alice when she was in the hospital. After she passed he would call the house phone just to hear her voice on the machine. He volunteered at a cat shelter. Cuz he said dogs get all the love . Then broke down how people will go to just walk the dogs for exercise. But no one's plays with the cats . And u can't talk about Dave without mentioning Sam his cat . Which he took care of and loved with all his heart. He had two one passed and Sam was left . I even named my iguana Sammie that's how close we where . I don't have any friends just family and a small group cuz we have been threw alot and Dave wasn't my friend he was family. “ you get it “ Dave konze quote... he will forever be missed by us my wife my kids especially my oldest kid my stepson he was close to all of us but he was close to me and him the most . Dave was all around a amazing person he will truly be missed. He was a character to Anyone that knew him . He would say they don't make em like me and you E Funk and he was right . Dave was one of a kind

“ Dave came to my rescue when I was at my lowest. He told me that the value of my friendship was important to him, and that was return enough on the favor. I know Dave was there for many people when they needed support, no matter how many times he got burned. Dave was a golden person. I think some may have missed that in him. To me, he was someone that I trusted, respected, and loved very much. I was not ready in the least for him to leave, and I will miss him a lot for some time.

I don't know many people who are true warriors like I think Dave was. He was very intelligent, fiercely loyal, kind and generous, and always ready to kick anyone's ass who crossed him or anyone he cared about. His type is rare and desperately needed in this world. I will always cherish my memories of Dave, and I look forward to grabbing his hand when it's time for me to go up.

Heidi - August 11, 2021 at 05:06 PM

Hi Heidi,

Thank you for loving my brother. I don't think anyone missed how great he was. Everyone loved him. When I called his job to tell them he wouldn't be back the young man who answered the phone cried, and they hadn't even known him that long. His landlord had a wonderful day with him at the house the day before he passed-she loved him. His CPA even cried when I told him.

Everyone who met Dave loved him. I am happy your son and husband got to know him so now whenever you tell Dave stories they'll know. There are so many funny stories that should continue being told. I'll miss him forever.
