“ Debbie and I were high school classmates. I will always remember her beautiful and genuine smile and her giving heart and spirit. I am glad I reconnected with her in the last year as she shared her illness and goodness with all of us. A special light has gone out from our lives but will always burn brightly in our hearts and minds. My sincere offerings of sympathy to the whole family. Our lives were all richer by her presence in this world.

So saddened to learn of Debbie's death. She and I shared many bags of peanut M & M's at Hampton National in Seabrook.. Sorry I didn't have the opportunity to meet Ryan but when I spoke to her several years ago I knew how precious he was to her. Chris and Forrest, know that you are in our thoughts and prayers and pray you will be comforted by wonderful memories of her life.
