

Dennis M. Doyle

April 8, 1947 - February 12, 2022

Rye - Dennis Michael Doyle, 74, of Rye, died on Saturday, February 12, 2022 at home surrounded by those he loved. He fought a courageous battle with a progressive illness. He was born on April 8, 1947 in Ayer, MA, the son of the late Richard and Noreen (Walsh) Doyle.

Dennis grew up in Milton, MA and was a graduate of Milton High School class of 1965 and Northeastern University class of 1970. He worked as a Certified Public Accountant at firms in San Francisco and Massachusetts and eventually for his own accounting business, which he maintained until his retirement in 2020. He founded and operated First New Hampshire Realty Group in the 1980's, developing land and commercial real estate in southern New Hampshire.

A lifelong learner, he received his Juris Doctor degree from the Massachusetts School of Law at age 50 and thereafter was a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association. Dennis was an exceptional self-taught cook and loved sharing his talent with anyone he hosted. Additional hobbies and endeavors have included licensure as a private pilot, skiing, golfing, dining out, and in his later years, part-time residence in San Diego.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 41 years, Pam, daughters Allison and Jennifer, grandson David Michael, brother Richard, sisters Patricia, Terry, and Christine, many nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews, and cherished dog, Peanut. In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brother David.

A service will be held on Saturday, February 19, 2022 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home - Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Calling hours are from 12:30-2:00pm and a service will be held from 2:00-3:00pm. Reception to follow. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Dennis' memory to CurePSP (<https://www.psp.org/>)
