

Dominic Roman White

April 21, 2005 - July 19, 2024

Portsmouth - Dominic Roman White, a beloved son, brother, and friend, passed away tragically on July 19, 2024. Despite his short time on this earth, Dominic brought joy even in the face of sadness.

Dominic was born on April 21, 2005, in Exeter, NH, the exact image of his late father, Darwin White, who passed away in 2015 after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. The family has yet to fully overcome the grief of Darwin's loss, and now they face the unimaginable pain of losing Dominic.

From an early age, Dominic's sensitivity and curiosity were evident. As a baby, he found comfort in being held close, and as soon as he could stand, he jumped; as soon as he could walk, he ran. He loved music and dancing, often exhausting himself before settling into enchanted afternoon naps.

In preschool, Dominic's genuine empathy for others was clear. His family discovered that he shared his father's love for water, spending hours playing in the tub with his pirate ship and later, delighting in the family's in-ground pool. This naturally became his happy place, where many fond memories were created during summertime pool parties.

Growing up in Rye, Dominic participated in Rye recreational sports alongside his older sister, Jenea, fostering strong friendships and a deep sense of community. Video games became a household staple after the introduction of PlayStation 3 in 2009, and Dominic cherished the time spent bonding with his father over their shared enthusiasm for gaming.

Dominic shared a passion for history with his mother, Jessica, and together they watched many famous movies and documentaries over the years. She will forever miss their shared conversations during Q&A time over modern and military history.

After the passing of his father, Dominic's zest for life dimmed, but he remained smart, resourceful, and determined. As he grew, he developed a tougher personality, building walls to protect his fragile self. Despite his fierce naivety, Dominic always bounced back from adversity. He longed for the closeness he had known as a baby and missed the simple pleasures of family life, something irreplaceable that he struggled to reconcile with the new normal.

In January 2021, Dominic and his family moved to Portsmouth, ending a bittersweet chapter in their lives. He embraced the change, taking full advantage of everything within walking distance, and was once again on the go, just as he had been as a baby.

After graduating high school in 2023, Dominic took a gap year, knowing that the traditional college path wasn't for him. Instead, he was drawn to the trades, passionate about the idea of underwater welding—a skill he naturally acquired from his father's love of diving.

Dominic is survived by his loving mother Jessica White and his cherished sister, Jenéa of Portsmouth. He also leaves behind his aunt Jennette Lofton and her husband Towan Lofton, his cousins Jordan and Jamyah Lofton all from Maryland, his cousin Jordan White- Leonard and her Husband Austin Leonard of Tampa, FL, along with their son Maxim Leonard, his mother's cousin Paul Kerivan and his wife Heidi Kerivan of York, Maine, and their two daughters, Kylie and Grace Kerivan, and his grandfather, Charles Murray of Sanbornville, NH. He also leaves many friends he made and kept while living in Florida for six months, many close and longtime friends from Rye and the small circle of tight friendships he developed since living in Portsmouth.

Dominic had many plans and dreams, and he would have made those dreams come true. He did not choose to leave this world- He loved his family deeply, and they loved him just as fiercely. His memory will be forever cherished by all who knew him.

Visitation will be from 5 PM to 7 PM on Friday, August 9, 2024, in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home, Crematory, Hampton.

From his mother Jessica,
Remember, Dominic had plans and goals, and was loved immensely! He did not want to leave this world. Life is short, life is fragile. Now, Dominic is finally at rest. Please hold him close, as I do, in your mind and in your spirit. Let us find, and encourage within ourselves, within society, the gifts that make us special. Every human need that. He or she belongs as a valued member, to feel appreciated and honored by others. Kindness is free. Let us lead by example. Tomorrow is not guaranteed.

I love you, my son. I brought you into this world, and I had to watch you leave. Rest easy with Daddy, until I see you again.

“ I didn't know you, Dominic, but from what I can tell you had a beautiful soul. It is very rare to have true, authentic people on this earth and I can tell that you were one of those. It's very obvious how your affected so many people in such a positive way by reading all of these wonderful messages.

My heart goes out to your family and friends who miss you dearly. Love is eternal and it's evident that you're were loved by many.

“ Hey Dom. I know we weren't super close and our friendship was just beginning however you touched my life either way. The light you brought to everyone around you will always be unmatched. You would give the shirt off your back for someone you cared for and these days people like that are hard to find. You had such a huge heart and an even bigger personality. The laughs you always brought were the best. I will forever remember the many times coming through my drive thru for free food in exchange for a laugh. We may not have had many memories but you'll be in mine for a lifetime. Rest easy now Dom-boy ☐

“ Hello Dominic my dearest son. It's been exactly 9 months today that you left us. Nothing is the same without you, and I grieve and mourn your loss with such intensity. I want to hear your voice, hug you again, and miss our time together.

I know you're above healthy, happy with Daddy and All of those who we've loved and lost. Along with all the others who we've known and lost. I also know you're up there making loving connections with those you've never met, In Gods perfect paradise 🙏

I've accomplished so much with my promise to get justice and keeping your legacy alive. Not a day goes by that I don't share your tragic story with the people from organizations such as V.O.I .D (Victims Of Illicit Drugs), and government officials (DEA, HSI) and those representing New England. This awful epidemic is closing in on a law (Halt Fentanyl Act) through the amazing Andrea and Jaime; founders of VOID. I will be meeting with them in August for their annual Fentanyl Awareness event being held right in Times Square NYC! In the interim I've been able to have your picture added to the Fentanyl Memorial exhibit! I'm working diligently on pursuing the DR Gang member who was arrested in November for his nearly two decades of involvement as a deadly drug dealer. As I've told you, this is my main purpose to do everything I can to honor your short life.

You would've have been 20 years old on Monday! It will be met with immense sadness, yet I will celebrate the day you came into this world with some special plans to honor your memory.

I love you with the deepest depths of my soul. You were a part of me, and huge piece of me died that day with you. So until the day you and I are reunited I will strive to keep my faith the foundation of how I live each day. I take nothing for granted and know to well how quickly life can be cut short.

I hope I'm able to fulfill my promises to you, and that I've made you proud with what I have achieved.

I love you yesterday, today and always Dominic! 💙

Keep laughing, smiling and enjoying your Heavenly existence my sweet angel.

“ I love and miss you so very much my dearest Dominic. It’s still feels so painfully unreal. The house is so quiet without you here... Talking, laughing, playing video games, listening to music. It is a pain like no other Not hearing your voice. Knowing I can’t hug you. I need to rewind time and hold you close. Keep you safe. Hang out together in my cozy room to watch a movie. I need to watch you walk up to the house one more time.

I constantly relive our last week together. I deeply regret not spontaneously surprising you with a trip to the theme parks. I would’ve packed your suitcase and as soon as you walked in, I would’ve said “get ready, we’re heading to the airport!” in my mind you would’ve been so caught up and excited, that possibly that distraction could’ve saved you?! 😭

That “what if’s” eat me alive...

The people who truly knew, or got to know the “real Dominic” (and there were many over the years!), saw only his authentic side. He had so much love and laughter, empathy and kindness, energy and compassion. I miss everything about you my son.

I wish you would just walk into the room and this was all a bad dream. Going through life without you is not living! It’s a numbing, constant and forced existence. Anyone who knows me knows that I loved you as much as humanly possible! There are no words ever, to articulate that emotion. I carried you and gave birth to you. You were part of ME! And now I am incomplete. Hollow. Debilitated by your death. I lived each day of my life for both you and your sister. My precious children. I had to survive losing Daddy in order to take care of you two. But no one can replace a Father, nevermind fill

“ I Love and miss you every moment of each Day Dominic. We were a team you and me. If I could only have trusted my gut, and kept you away from the two low-life liars. They know a little too late that I see their disgusting rap sheet, spanning way back. The details, the photos; the proof that was hidden behind the ignorant, uneducated, pathological lies.

Why did I believe such a degenerate? How sinister and sneaky to look your mother in the eyes and lie! Well I promise you Dominic, his and the others' lives are forever changed. They too will Not have a future on this earth. Although theirs will not be spent anywhere close to you. I fight alone, and with an army of supporters to bring swift justice to those directly involved in your demise. The consequences of those lies and deliberate deception ENDS with the loss of you! I won't stop until I see them all taken from society, safely off the streets, unable to destroy another vulnerable, innocent life. They knew exactly what they were doing!, but had nothing to live for except the choice of a corrupt life. That choice will finally come to an end, and their fate on this earth will be spent in the proper place, having nothing but time and fear reflecting on those choices. Only God is capable when Their judgement Day Comes!

It sounds like your pain is overwhelming. Hate will not stop the use of drugs, if anything it will fuel it more Than you know.

Take that hate and honor your son's memory by educating other parents and kids on the consequences of drug use.

The kids today have a choice but they have to understand the options.

Joseph - August 20, 2024 at 06:39 PM

MO

My pain is indescribable. There is a difference between overdosing and being poisoned. My son did not have a choice when he was murdered and considered collateral damage.

His mental illness got the best of him, and he did not choose a path of drugs, and before he became an addict, I was getting him help. But it took very, very selfish boldface, lying young adults to enable him, knowing well how I felt and told them to their faces Numerous times. And unless she walked in my shoes, it's not even hate. There is no word that has yet been coined for being in this club that should be reserved for the most heinous of human beings.

And I have taken every waking day of my life, and I have advocated, and I will not stop until my last breath, and I have educated that "one pill can kill" it does not discriminate and whether you've done it before or one time, nobody asks to be laced with fentanyl. And kids do have a choice, but I don't think any of them would choose to be POISONED!

“ Breaks my heart, gone way to soon, 💔 I remember one of the first times I met him I was outside just chatting with him and he asked me for a cigarette. I said absolutely not you're too young and you shouldn't smoke anyways. He looks at me and goofily says " I respect that and I was just joking" I said "you were joking huh?" He looks around to make sure no one was around and says "ya my mom would kill me" He really did love his mom. I spent the next 15 minutes telling him how smoking is dumbest thing I ever started doing and I wish I never started and that I was his age when I started. I hoped I was able to make him not want smoke and by the end of the fifteen minutes the kid gave me a hug, wiped a tear from his eye and turned to leave and Bobby Orr style fell over the chair behind him 😭 miss ya kid ❤️

Thank you Tatum! 💔 Good "ole" America! The Sunday morning classic rock kinda music. A Horse with no name, Ventura Highway and Tin Man.

He sure was a sweet boy, he loved being around people, especially his friends. Thank you for being one of them! Rye was a special place to grow up, his father and I are blessed with very many special memories. I miss them both tremendously!

“ I will forever consider you my family, and forever think about those months we got to spend every day together, you always knew what to say and how to make me laugh, i'm going to miss walking though the door and having you excitedly scream my name the second i walk in. I'm so grateful to have known you, and to have been able to love you. You will be forever missed and loved❤️❤️

“ Dom was a good person and an even better friend. Many many good memories with him in the car, same 7 songs playing on repeat on the way to the casino or gym. Wherever we were going he was always smiling, cracking jokes given any chance to do so. Rest in Peace Dom, you were a great friend.

“ Growing up in Rye Dominic was always the biggest smile in the room and one of the happiest kids ever. From playing on many Rye Rec teams together to hanging out in his pool with friends it was never a dull moment and always gave people a bright smile to look at. He will be missed as much more than just a friend to anyone who was lucky to know him.
Rest easy Dom

“ Dominic,

You were such an amazing man, I could always rely on you for a smile, a joke that kept people laughing for a long time and an amazing friend who was always there at my lows and highs. You are so loved and you are always in my thoughts. Thank you for being such a good friend, person and like a brother. I love you❤️

“ I never thought I would be here writing this, not but a month ago we were working on figuring out what we wanted to do with our lives wether you were going to come join me up in Vermont and start a woodworking business together or that I would come down to live with you after I finished the national guard. There are no words to fill the void of your absence. I’m eternally grateful that we met that February in 4th grade and you In 5th. I still remember that conversation we had about trading Pokémon cards. That conversation would bloom into 9 of the best years of my life. Every time I did anything even minutely smart you would always say “Good shit” and “you’re a genius”. And we would laugh about it. From that day in February on the rye elementary school playground through the 4 years living next to each other in rye and going to Abeniqui for hours to the week you spent up here in the middle of nowhere Vermont, we made the best of it very minute we had together and lived life to the fullest especially you. I’m eternally grateful for the time we got to spend together and if I could go back in time to change anything there would be nothing to change. You impacted people in so many ways and so many people are grateful for that. I still can’t believe I’m saying this but rest easy brother and soar to the highest heights.

-Your eternal and unwavering friend, Layne.

“ Dominic, I see you in my minds eye coming down the driveway at Paul's. Oh the beautiful smile you would have on your face, the laughter in your eyes. The way you would hug each of us, letting us know you were happy to see us. Your impish ways and infectious enthusiasm would keep us on our toes. You were a sweet and caring soul and I so hope you knew we all truly loved you Dom. XXXOOO RIP now precious boy!

“ I will never forget Doms smile. Dominic White had a lot of internal struggles but being friends with him was one of the most grounding things. Dom looked at me and saw me for the best possible version of myself. I never felt judged by Dominic. His smile was so contagious and he always ALWAYS knew how to make someone laugh. The way I remember Dom and will always remember him is a youthful spirited, adventurous, care free, happy go lucky type of guy. Dominic was there in the darkest of times and I can't even begin to process the fact that i'll never see him again. I watched him graduate middle school after working so hard one on one with teachers to fully understand the work he was doing, although he never gave up and always gave everything his all. I will forever love you Dom and am so grateful for the joy you brought on this earth. Gone way too young and way too soon. I love you buddy, and you are with Darwin now❤️❤️. All my love to Jenea and Jess as well, grief is not easy and you guys are not alone.

“ My sweet cuz,
I hope you knew how much you meant to everyone your kind soul ever met. You deserved the world. I can't believe you're really gone. I'm absolutely gutted inside. We weren't only cousins but best friends. We always talked about growing up together, turning 21 together the same year and celebrating, also getting to be at and in each others weddings and so on and so forth. But god had other plans for your sweet soul and left me here without you so I will continue on for the both of us, I will always keep your memory alive and celebrate these life events with you in my mind and heart at all times. May you finally reunite with your dad again who i know you loved and missed so dearly. I know he greeted you in heaven with loving open arms. Thank you for all the laughs, love, support and fun times. You truly were the life of the party. Always making everyone laugh and smile with your presence. You were genuinely a great kid with so much kindness and love in your heart. You will be missed greatly by everyone , I love and will miss you more than words can express, until we meet again cuz 🍷💙

“ Oh my precious baby boy, what I wouldn't give to be able to see you and hold you once again. I couldn't have loved you anymore than humanly possible. I knew you better than anyone, and I'm so blessed to have shared our strong bond together. My ineffable companion always. You were my "Darwin Jr.", I would see Daddy in you every single day, not just in your appearance, but your demeanor and certain mannerisms. I always told you how important you were being Daddy's legacy, now both of my handsome men have been taken away far too soon.

I'd be lying if I didn't say I'm angry, but you know my fight has just begun Dominic. And you also know firsthand I am not one to shy away from any social stigma's! Your story will be told my precious son, I will not stop advocating for you while bringing awareness over this despicable epidemic. I will fight this fight for You. And I will never stop exhausting every resource attainable until I make an impact strong enough to be heard and acknowledged. My fierce tenacity will fuel this fight in your honor, as I hope to help other parents who have succumb to this unspeakable tragedy. I know my real purpose now. I can't bring you back, but I will not let you down my son, and I hope to make you proud . I can't bear the thought of my life without you, it will forever be indescribable. Just know (and you know me well!), that I will carry you in my heart always, that special spot carved out just for you! Fly high above with Daddy, and with all who've have crossed over to the other side.  My boy, my blood, I love you with every ounce of my being. Goodbye for now my sweet angel.
