Rock's wish is that you keep him in your heart especially while golfing, taking long walks, traveling to a new destination, reading a "factual" history book and of course when sipping a scotch!

“ My brother-in-law Rock, was without a doubt one of the most gentle men I have ever known. Rock thoroughly enjoyed his life and lived his life on his terms. He was my sister’s best friend, lover, and soul mate. Together they created a perfect partnership .. sharing all that they could with each other.

Rock was man of definite ideas, beliefs, and convictions - and I think that is one of the many reasons I loved him over the years. My dad always said that if Chris and Rock ever separated, Rock would always have a home with my parents.

He wasn’t my brother-in-law he was more of a brother. He was the mediator for me and my sister when we would get into a ‘sisterly’ tiff; he supported all of my endeavors and choices and never judged.

Now mind you we disagreed quite often on politics but it was always a healthy debate and one I will sorely miss having in the coming years. Rocky I was so happy that you got to vote!

I was disheartened that I was not able to see Rock before he left us but we texted and he knew how much he meant to me. Rock, I miss you so very much.

You are a great memory. It doesn’t seem that we were all at Sitto’s house on holidays running around & probably driving our parents crazy. Your family was the best. I will always remember you with a smile in my heart. Tell everyone in heaven I said hi❤️ You will be missed but always in my heart.

“ My brother, Don, was truly a great guy. He had a wonderful marriage with his wife, Chris, was successful in business, enjoyed playing golf, traveling, watching his favorite sports' teams on TV, reading nonfiction books, and the company of his friends and family. He had many friends, some whose he's had since his childhood. The world is a little emptier now. I will miss him. Jeanne

“ Rock and I first met at the Heart Health Institute in York Maine. Although he was a Patriot, Red Sox and Celtic fan and I loved the Giants, Yankees and Knicks we became friends over our interest in history. We had many great discussions during those exercise activities. And while we may have supported different teams our respect for each other was mutual Chris and my wife Ginny met at an art class and the four of us soon were enjoying each others company on many social activities. We will both miss Rock very much and we will cherish his memory. In the words of the Elton John song "How wonderful life was while you were in the world." Paul and Ginny Scudiere

“ Rock was a kind, quiet, welcoming man, and a friend for over 50 years. He and Chris were a lovely couple living in a beautiful home in Maine. We valued his friendship and very sad that his last few months were so difficult. May this dear man rest in peace.

“ Christine our deepest condolences to you and the entire Haddad Family. Rock was a great friend growing up in Roslindale. We went to Washington Irving Junior High School and Roslindale High School (Class of 64) together. We went to many Patriots' Games, Celtics Games, Bowling, Paragon Park, Movies, and just "hanging out" on Little Dale Street. Rock's mother, father, sisters, and brother were great folks who were always very welcoming whenever we visited. His father was always giving us investment advice. He was a very intelligent, gracious, person who did extremely well in life. As we got busy with education, military obligation, work, family, travel, etc. we did not speak often but I very much enjoyed when we did. I will miss him.
A life well lived!!
