

Donna M. Chase

August 24, 1960 - August 12, 2021

Exeter – Donna May Chase, 60, of Seabrook, NH passed away peacefully on August 12, 2021 at the Exeter Center where she had been living since becoming ill. Donna was born in Amesbury, MA on August, 24, 1960, a daughter to the late Fred and Helen (Jackman) Chase.

Donna was a lifelong resident of Seabrook and graduated from Winnacunnet High School in 1978. After high school she attended vocational school and earned her LNA Certificate. She then began her 19 year career as an LNA in hospice, caring for countless patients over the years at The Seacoast Health Center in Hampton and with the Rockingham VNA & Hospice of Exeter. She was a faithful and active parishioner of The Faith Community Church in Hampton and enjoyed spending her time assisting in the church's works.

She is survived by her sisters, Diane Elwell of Effingham and Billie Hart of Salisbury MA, her nieces Jennifer Serra of Virginia Beach, VA, Darcy Graham of Hampton and Denise Mason of Seabrook and her nephews Jeremy Elwell and Fred, Ronnie, and Gene Janvrin.

In addition to her parents, Donna was predeceased by her brother Stanley King.

Services will be private. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the

Rockingham VNA & Hospice of Exeter (<https://www.exeterhospital.com/Rockingham-VNA-Hospice/RVNA-Hospice-Events>)

“ Donna had a subtle and unique way of getting me to see what I was doing wrong. She loved Jesus with her whole heart. I was blessed that she was in my life. She's home with Jesus now. No more pain no more sorrow. She is at peace
