

Dorinda May Janvrin

December 17, 1927 - January 5, 2026

Lincoln ME - Dorinda May Janvrin, a lifelong resident of Seabrook, NH, passed away peacefully on Monday, January 5, 2026.

Dorinda was born on December 17, 1927, in Seabrook, NH, a daughter of the late Charles and Adolia May (Fowler) Dow. She spent her life in Seabrook, where she raised her family, and later resided in Stratham for two years before moving to Lincoln, ME to be close to her daughters.

In 1952, Dorinda married her beloved husband, Wilfred Janvrin. They shared 52 years of marriage until his passing in 2004. Dorinda was employed as a stitcher at Welpro and Colby Shoe in Rochester, NH, and continued working until her retirement at the age of 70.

She enjoyed camping and spending time with her family. Her favorite place was the Saco River Campground, where she spent many summers. She will be fondly remembered for her great sense of humor and being especially “shifty” during family card games.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Stephanie and Benjamin Peek of Lincoln, ME and Cynthia Harrison and Tom Kates of Lincoln, ME; her grandchildren, Chris Daignault and his wife Krystle of Hampton, NH, Derrick Peek and his wife Michelle Peek of Durham, NH, and Jennifer Peek of Deerfield, NH; her brother Darryl Dow of Myrtle Beach, SC; and her great-grandchildren, Anthony Perkins, Samantha Rines and Kailee Peek.

In addition to her parents and husband, Dorinda was predeceased by her brothers Ralph and Charles Dow.

All services will be private.

“ My second Mom. I have so many memories of Rin. We went on so many trips together. Camping at Saco River Camping Area during the 60's. Singing around the campfire while Red played the guitar. If I'm real quiet, I can hear her laugh even now. I'll always love her. She was my other Mom. Fly high, Rin, Fly high! ”
