“ I am deeply saddened by the passing of my mother-in-law of 35+/- years. She was a very good one (MIL was what she called herself on birthday and Xmas cards) and we had many, many good times, good laughs and good talks until late in the evening. Even though she and I didn't always agree and she was always right in the end (?), I did love her like a mother since I had lost mine long before I met her. I will continue to have fond memories of her and hope her family is well knowing she is up there with Pops and Florence as well as her first love, Paul. Rest in peace Dot.
