“ Doug was a dear friend from PNS days. He always had a great smile and lifted the whole room he was in. Whitty, smart and always concerning of others. My sincerest sympathy and comfort go out to the whole family

“ I meet Lois in mid-1976. A group of us spent time making crafts in the dorm, then we walked all over Paris and Garmisch-Partenkirchen. She fought hard to get Doug joint spouse and did it!! Despite obstacles and people arguing military points, she prevailed and Doug joined her in 1977!! I want happy about her leaving. She was one of a couple great pranksters in the barracks I knew I could trust 🙏 and could admire. Prayers to you and your family, Lois.

“ So sorry. I always enjoyed seeing Doug. Bruce and he seemed to find something to talk about whenever he came to Green Bay. Doug and Lowie sure have gone through a lot together. Poor health and being a caregiver is never easy. But always rewarding. I'm proud of you Lowie ❤️💔❤️💔❤️💔

“ I met Lois in 1975 because she lived in the Air Force barracks across the hall from me. She worked with Doug and then I met him. The one thing that I remember about Doug was he had this care and was so proud of it. I eventually got a car and I knew that if I had problems with it Doug would help me out. Eventually Lois got sent to Germany and a few months after that I got set to Germany. We didn't get sent to the same base. Eventually Lois and Doug got married and he was reassigned to Germany. We were able to spend time together and we had a lot of good times. Usually we were picking on him and laughing at him. Doug was a very good guy and I am sorry that he died before his time. I wish Lois, Ellen, Joe, grandchildren and the rest of the family the best. - Janis Braden

“ Our deepest sympathies to Lois and family. Doug was always so upbeat and positive. He loved to chat about his daughter and grandkids when getting his hair cut.

Doug was a true light in the neighborhood, always with a gentle, friendly smile, he came over and put my vacuum cleaner together for me. He delighted in his grandchildren and had so much fun remote control driving them in their little cars up and down the street :), beaming with pride. Love and prayers to all.
