“ My dad, like no other. He will be greatly missed, even though we didn't live close by, we shared a love, that only can be held in our hearts and minds. I have so many memories, I'd have to write a book... he will always be with me, the rest of my life. His strength, with the love he had for his own 2 girls, as well for the love for his new family he had, he loved with every fiber of his being. That alone will last forever. I miss you dad and I will see you again, not saying goodbye, just see you in the heavens 💔😭🕊️❤️

“ I had the privilege of working alongside Keith in his workshop for 27 years. Together we shared countless hours woodworking, and I was always struck by his creativity and remarkable skill. He had an eye for detail and a steady hand that turned simple pieces of wood into true works of craftsmanship. So many of my fondest memories are from our time spent in that workshop, learning and building together. Keith was a true craftsman in every sense of the word, and he will be deeply missed.
