“ Ed was a truly great human being. He helped my brother w/ our taxes when we sold our house and saved us a lot of money. Ed was one of those people who go on doing ordinary things every day, like helping other people--and it accumulates to a life of quiet heroism. He was an unsung hero.

Deepest condolences to his wife and family.

“ Ed was very enjoyable to talk with. He had an affinity for history which he and I both shared. I learned to respect him very quickly. He was an optimist and a realist. I always loved to wait and watch him think through something, (which did not take long) he had a sharp mind and a wicked memory. Despite the awfulness of my IRS audit, I never hated going to see him. He will be missed. I am very sorry I did not know of his passing and offer my deepest condolences to his family.

“ Condolences to Pam and his kids. Worked with Ed in Portsmouth as an RO as a union steward he got me to Portsmouth on a grievance. Only condition if we won I had to take him with me. Great move. Never knew how smart Eddie was until he started doing my returns after he left the govt. he was a great highly knowledgeable human being . Great sense of humor .miss him now and he will be missed in the future.

*Rest Ed you've earned it

“ We all are very saddened by Ed's passing. Ed had been more a friend than business associate, always helping us through difficult situation and a great listener. Our daughter, Ruhee always talks fondly of Ed as uncle Ed, he gave her the first job and taught her the values of sincerity hard work. We will miss him greatly.

“ My sincere condolences to the Long family. Ed was my accountant for more than 25 years. He made the complicated process of completing my income tax preparation less stressful. He maintained his humor and always did a fantastic job. Each year I would look forward to meeting with Ed to share the success and failures of the previous year. Ed was a good man and he will be missed by me and the many other people that knew him.

My prayers go out to the Long family. God Bless you!

Thank for your dedication and professionalism and dedication.
