“ Truly a special woman, I will miss her and never forget who she was. She was incredibly kind but with a wonderful sense of humor and fun. I always admired how incredibly independent and active she was for her age! She lived life to the fullest while always remembering to care for and think about others, and leaves behind a wonderful legacy of a beautiful family whom she loved dearly.

“ Elaine was such a wonderful woman. I so enjoyed knowing her through the Seacoast Group. Her smile always made me feel welcome and encouraged. I would never have guessed her age. I am so sorry for your loss. Her family will be in my thoughts as you grieve, and I will say a special prayer for Elaine. Unfortunately, I cannot make the services.
Sincerely, Maureen (Mo) Howlett

“ Elaine was a special woman with a curiosity and love for learning. She relished the opportunity to socialize and enjoy wonderful food. She was steeped in Spirituality and brought her full presence to everyone she encountered. For years she was involved in our Women’s Spirituality group and was an active participant in our Centering Prayer Group. She loved her family and cared deeply for each one. She will truly be missed
