

Eleanor Kostandin

December 5, 1933 - June 9, 2016

Hampton – Eleanor Kostandin, 82, of Hampton, passed away peacefully on Thursday, June 9, 2016 at the Oceanside Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation Center on Hampton.

Eleanor was born December 5, 1933 in Boston, MA. She graduated from Boston University with her degree in English and in 1958, married the love of her life, John Kostandin. The family had resided in Methuen, Somerville, Lynnfield and North Andover, MA before relocating to Hampton in the early 1980s. Eleanor and John owned and operated the Lobster Trap Restaurant at Hampton Beach for many years before retiring in 1994.

Family was Eleanor's priority and her world. Nothing made her happier than raising her children and grandchildren and taking care of the family home. Eleanor was a faithful communicant of the Saints Vartanantz Armenian Church of Chelmsford, MA before falling ill.

She is survived by her beloved husband John, of Hampton, her sister Jeanette of Arlington, MA, her 5 children and her 11 grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 10 am on Sunday, July 17, 2016 at the Saints Vartanantz Armenian Church, 180 Old Westford Rd., Chelmsford, MA 01824. Friends and family are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Eleanor's name to her church at the above address.
