“ Betty was a loving caring and generous wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. A friend to all and loved by all. Her pleasures were the smiles on a child's face. Her face would glow when she saw joy in others. For the sixty years we knew her she asked nothing for herself. Her needs were simple; to love and be loved, to have family and friends around her and share in life's pleasant memories.

Betty, there's a slot machine with your name on it in Heaven and you will always win on it. Ka-ching!

Betty Ann we have been together forever. From the Sundays at Nanny's house to the Sundays we went to Notimbega Park with our 50 Pennie's for the arcade to sharing our lives about family and friends. I will truly miss our 6:00 calls on Sunday where we would discuss everything. You are one in a million and I am so lucky to have had you as my cousin. You will be missed more than you could ever know, I love you and until we meet again you will always be on my mind and in my heart. ❤️ Mary Ann

The kindness that Betty showed to my family and I will never be forgotten. Betty was one of the sweetest people I have ever had the pleasure of meeting. She treated us like we were one of her own. RIP Betty, I am sure that Ray was there to greet you. Your family will remain in my thoughts and prayers ❤️ Nancy Patti DiTomasso

Although I only met Betty in passing a few times I know how special she is. I know Betty from her "special daughter" Tammy. Tammy always spoke of Betty and how much they enjoyed being together. Tammy always referred to her as "my second Mom" I know she will be missed so much. Debbie Fichera

My friend, my Betty Boop, my second Mom, and Nanny to my daughter, I will never forget you. You have influenced my life in many ways. Throughout the 19 years I was with your son, I came to love and admire an amazing, strong, and loving woman. Even after those years, I knew you would always be there for me if I ever needed your love and guidance. You helped me to truly let go and not be concerned with what others think of me. I watched as you were always completely yourself. This is why I, and so many other people, felt comfortable around you. Anyone was welcomed in your home, until they hurt any one of your kids, Tammy, or me. You made me feel like your own through the years. I know there were times we could make you so angry, but you loved us with such ferocity you could never stay angry for long.

I remember singing with Linda, Nancy, and Kim in bed at night the first time I was away with your family. I think Russell Jr. wanted us to be quiet and you stood outside the bedroom door giggling, I'm sure, telling him to let us sing. I remember playing cards with you and Dad after Sunday pot roast dinner. I remember all the trips we took together. I remember you being silly and us kids laughing with you so hard we'd cry. I remember standing behind supporting you while going up an escalator because you were so scared—we were laughing so hard and well, you can remember what happened next! I also think we slept on tables together that day because our rooms weren't ready.

You and Dad shopped for and fed everyone for so many Christmas parties, graduations, and July 4th pig roasts year after year. You put so much work and care into making many people happy together. At times, I still hear your voice in my head telling me, "You have to enjoy life today. The laundry will always pile up and the housework will always be there for you tomorrow." You saw me in my worse times too. Many times we sat together, and with a mother's honesty and soft words and a friend's understanding, you were there for me.

As we got older and had our own children, I saw your love continue. Your grandchildren were everything to you. Thank you so much for being such a special presence in my daughter's life. She has come to know you and love you as much as I do. I will always have happy memories of you to share with Madison as she continues to grow. I hope my Mother is picking mushrooms and cooking them for you in heaven—or maybe her cinnamon nut cookies you loved. I love you and I will never forget you. Annamarie (ReeRee)
