“ Oh my gosh, I am just learning of this sad loss. Betty was always a dear friend to me. When I was in touch with her, she was a great mother and caring wife. I know she had her struggles. I know that festered for a long time. She was a loyal and hard working employee when we worked together. She always had my best interests in mind. One thing I will always remember about Betty was if someone she had something she wanted, she was never envious. She found a way to work for the things she wanted. I will miss her smiling face terribly, and remember her sweet nature. I'm sorry for your loss.
