“ Betty was a lovely woman, the kind of woman who taught the rest of us how to be "ladies". Always kind, with a good word for everyone, she opened her home to the children in our family and our neighborhood for many years. Her warmth, her smile, and her kindness made her a joy to be around. Heaven was blessed to receive her into the arms of angels.

“ Our condolences go out to The Hackett Family. Aunt Betty was very loving and kind. We have many wonderful memories of her. We always admired her strong faith in the Lord and the loving relationship she had with our mother, Barbara, and their brother, Jay. We have fond memories of the many Thanksgivings she hosted so beautifully. We were blessed to have her in our lives and loved her very much. The Grandin family
