“ I loved to play cards at night with Ellinor and our late late night snacks. I can't count the times we played cards. I lived there worth her many times. I considered her my family and will continue to so. I still can't believe you've gone to the other side. I love you always. I will see you when it's my turn. Will share many memories in time as I have many to share. I love you
