

Evelyn S. Gloor

November 12, 2025

Evelyn S. Gloor, 93, of Greenland, NH, passed away peacefully with her family by her side on November 12, 2025. She was born on May 19, 1932 in Manchester, NH.

Born to Yvette and Edmond Martineau of Manchester, NH, she attended UNH briefly. She married John E. (Jack) Gloor in 1959 and the couple settled in Rye to raise their family. Subsequent to their divorce, she became the founder and owner of The Wisteria Tree Estate Jewelry Store and later The Speakeasy Night Club, the largest dance club north of Boston, both in Portsmouth.

An avid and accomplished artist from an early age, her love of painting flourished throughout her lifetime. She could be found daily in her paint room working in acrylic on her favorite subjects; landscapes, flowers, and the ocean. Her paintings adorn the walls of many family and friends.

Painting was second only to the love she had for her family. She was a loving and proud mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She had a particularly close relationship and was a loyal advocate for her six grandchildren; Taylor, Reegan, Ryder, Kelly, James and Jack.

She is survived by three daughters and their families; Deborah Donahue of West Newbury, MA, Cynthia Birse and her husband Andy, of Greenland, NH and Renee Carbone and her husband Bob, of Rye, NH, 6 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and her sister Suzanne Routhier and her husband Dennis of Manchester, NH, and their family.

A celebration of her life will be held at the Portsmouth Gaslight Restaurant on Saturday, January 17, 2026 from 4:00 p.m until 7:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Evelyn's memory to Rockingham County Meals on Wheels by clicking here. (<https://rockinghammealsonwheels.org/>)

“ We have fond memories of Evelyn and am proud to have many painted canvas rugs in my home. We also gifted both paintings and rugs, that Evelyn custom painted for me to friends and relatives. We will remember her smile and spirited flare. Evelyn will be missed but thoughtfully remembered 💙
