“ I never got to really know Aunt Faye until later in life, but she was always interested in my life as a firefighter/paramedic and I always looked forward to the conversations with her and Uncle Carroll that I had. Love always, Matt DeCosta

“ My heartfelt prayers go out to all the Pineo's during this difficult time. Your Mom was always such a beautiful lady I can still picture her, and now she is waltzing around Heaven with your Dad, and one day everyone will all be together again. This isn't goodbye it's just a see you later. When it's someone we love even 93 years isn't nearly long enough.

“ Deepest condolences, and sympathy to the Pineo family during this challenging time. Gary and I had a fun and memorable time with Aunt Faye and Uncle Carol when they visited us years ago in AZ while on a tour of the state's Zane Gray sites. Much love and prayers to all. May you be blessed with the strength to lift you up and carry you through this sad time.
