October 29, 1937 - June 30, 2023

She was born in Newburyport, MA on October 29th, 1937 a daughter of the late Cecelia (Littlefield) Tanner and Russell Mallock.

She was past president of Navy Wives when she lived in Okinawa Japan and later served as the Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star in Hampton.

Florence enjoyed many adventures with her family while her husband served in the military and later with her mother, daughter and granddaughter, especially to her beloved island of Aruba where she spent time with many dear friends from around the world. She was extremely proud of her business, Ceal's Clam Stand that her mother started in 1948 and had many employees who became like family to her. She was always there every year since first day Ceal's opened, even when she lived in Japan for 12 years, flying home every summer to work with her mother.

She shared 37 years of marriage with her late husband Carol G. Henderson who predeceased her in 1993.

Surviving family members include her daughter, Debra Bembury and her husband Cecil; granddaughter, Alison Tirone.

“ Our love for Flo started with Ceal when my son Rich went to work at Ceals Clam Stand nearly 30 years ago. Then came Debbie and Allison who Karen, myself and Rich and Adam all grew to love. The trips to Aruba, waiting for the clam stand to open and get my signature cheeseburger special. What a loving family! Two generations have gone to heaven and two more succeed to carry the tradition of Ceals dream of owning a Clam Stand which is much more; it is a legend which will live on for many years to come. How proud Ceal and Flo must be of Daughter and granddaughter!!

“ I was sad to hear of Floe's passing. I went by Ceals today like I have for many summers. I was excited to see her when I heard the news she passed. She will truly be missed. She made Ceals a special and memorable place for my family.
