“ Dear Ray, I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember how she welcomed me and my boys into your home in Seabrook. The door of the refrigerator was full of pictures of her family and my boys pictures were privileged to be up there too. We spent many summers with Rosemary and the girl hanging out with all of you at the beach. She always had the scrabble game ready for us to play. Of course, she won most of the time. Now she can rest and Rosemary and I will play a game or two of scrabble in her honor.

“ When my mind wanders to Flo and Ray, I am reminded of Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire, the way Flo and Ray, floated on the dance floor, so much in tune, and in love with each other. In my humble opinion, they were the best dancers, at the Hideaway, in Florida. It was something to behold, and those memories will always stay with me. Flo will be missed by all! Our prayers are with Ray and his family.
