“ So many great memories with Forrest down to Camp in November during hunting season, I will never forget them. The stories he told will be cherished forever, and I know they were real because they never varied from year to year. Some of the best times of my life was at camp with Forrest in the deep Maine woods. He always talked about the black bear that walked right to us by the Bears Den, I'm not sure who was more surprised, the bear or us ! Todd Leland

The many stories he told, the love for your Mom, his joy of life was undeniable!! We have missed him at camp for the last 8 years. This picture was the last time he was at camp with us in 2013. Happy dance as we were getting ready to head home. He couldn't wait to get home to your mom!! I will always cherish the times spent with him and your mom!! Godspeed!!

“ My first memory of Uncle Forrest is at a Christmas gathering at Nana and Bamps house many years ago. I gave him some razors and he gave me a penny. Hence I learned a wives tale about sharp objects. I learned many other things from his numerous stories about camp and life in general. He was always a joy to listen to. Whenever we came from Texas to visit family, Nini and Forrest were always on our schedule to stop and talk. He gave me many great memories. Thanks Uncle Forrest.

“ Had many hours of story telling at Camp at Narraguagus Lake with Uncle Forrest and Grandfather Thompson. He was an avid hunter and enjoyed cutting and splitting wood in preparation for the following fall. How many years did he and Bamp spend a week at the Bears Den down the outlet and up into the woods? Always ready and willing to help anybody who needed it. Brothers and I used to tell him he was our favorite uncle. Of course, he was our ONLY Uncle. He laughed!
Learned to drive in his car going back and forth in his driveway on Pages Lane.
Will never be anybody like him. RIP Uncle Forrest.
