

Frank "Wile E. Coyote" Janvrin

May 19, 1932 - October 1, 2021

Seabrook – Frank E. “Wile E. Coyote” Janvrin, 89, of Seabrook, died Friday, October 1, 2021 at Portsmouth Regional Hospital after a period of failing health. He was born in Newburyport, MA May 19, 1932 a son of the late Daniel and Dora (Cole) Janvrin, Sr.

A lifelong resident of Seabrook he was employed by the Seabrook Department of Public Works for 30 years retiring in 1994. He was a longtime volunteer fireman for the Seabrook Fire Department and was a member of the Seabrook Fireman’s Association.

He was a humble and very giving man, loved his family especially his grandchildren, enjoyed the history channel, hanging out at “The Barn” the old fire station, collecting military memorabilia, driving the coastline and anything about trains.

He leaves his daughter Francine Cocuzzo and her husband Michael, four grandchildren, Lawrence Smith, Rianna, Eric and Madison Raymond, his sister Mary Hatch and husband Chet of Salisbury, MA.

He was predeceased by his life companion Ethel Mary Eaton in 1992 and by his brother Daniel Janvrin, Jr. who was killed in action during WW II.

Private services will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton.

“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your Dad. He always came into Shaw's to buy his ice cream. He was a good man. God Bless you, Frank
