“ I just was told of Freds passing. My heart goes out to his family. I had not seen Fred in 10 years but at one time we were close. I have lots of memories that are very special to me. I will say a lot of them involved playing Spades until the we hours of the morning. Fred was so special and will be greatly missed.

“ Such sad news of Fred's passing. Fred was my good friend and right-hand man for many years when I owned Flotation Technologies in Maine. We kept in touch after the sale of the company and he and I both when through cancer treatments. In spite of his diagnosis and substituent setbacks, Fred never lost his optimism and relentless good-cheer. He thrived on good news and let the bad news roll off his back. He was smart, competitive, quick with a joke and quick to laugh. He seemed old before his time but he used to joke that that wasn't age, just the "mileage" from all that travel. He was the toughest guy I ever met and should be an inspiration to everyone on how to deal with adversity. I'll always miss him but I'm so glad that he found Heather and an additional family to add to his own in his final years. Love you Buddy.
