“ As one travels the road of life you come across people who are inspirational and kind, Gail was one of those people, the world will miss her. Our hearts and prayers go out to Paul, Paige and Keil.

“ When I was first planning on moving to New Hampshire, Gail reached out to me in an email and made me feel welcomed...before I even arrived! I was a single gal back then and Gail showed me so much love and encouragement and would lovingly challenge me. I pray that my daughter will be blessed to one day find a woman who will invest in her as Gail invested in me. I will never forget the beach walks, time spent with Gail, Paige and Kiel. They are such sweet memories.

“ The most cherished gift that Gail ever gave me was her friendship. The common bond that held us together was the Lord Jesus Christ. Whenever we talked, and we talked a lot, the conversations mostly centered around Him. She loved Him and it showed by her thoughtfulness and her desire to please Him. She was accepting, encouraging, and honest with me and I could trust her because she seemed to have my best interest at heart, even if it hurt. She would say to me, "What do the scriptures say?". Over the years we've shared many good memories, but none will be more cherished than my last visit with her this past August. We read a book together about what Heaven will be like. It was glorious when we talked about how Heaven "IS" being with Christ. I saw such joy in her face. She was at peace even though she was in pain. I will never forget the last voicemail message she left me, saying, "I'm sorry you're not there Chris, I'm sitting on my bed, the birds are singing, and life is good. Her faith in Christ strengthened mine.

“ Gail rocks! I worked with her at Liberty Mutual and enjoyed her humor, she loved her family very much. When my son Lennon was born 3 years ago I would send her pictures as he would grow, she was always quick to respond to my emails with the most sincere of compliments, I for one will always have a special place in my heart for her.

Love,

“ Gail was such a welcoming heart from the moment we met her, such a gentle and loving friend. We will miss that beautiful smile that radiated from her soul. We pray that Paul, Paige and Kiel find comfort in their hearts and minds as they rely upon the loving hands of Christ that hold them. David, Julie and Elisabeth

“ To have been able to care for Gail in these last weeks has been such a blessing, a gift from God, that I cannot express with enough words how much this time has meant to me. The Lord brought her into my life many years ago and she shared Him with me, I will be grateful for all eternity. I have learned so much from her and will miss her tremendously. I can only imagine the bliss she is now in and I look forward to the day that I can join her in heaven. Soon and very soon! I will continue loving and caring for her girls who are like my own and supporting Paul through this most difficult time because that's what we do, we're family. My heart breaks for them but we will trust God and know that He loves them more than we can and He will use us to show them. Love to you all!

“ Gail was a fantastic friend and cousin who will be sorely missed. I remember as a child going to visit her, Robert and Kevin on Saturday's with mom and Nana. Loved visiting her in Somerville and then at the beach. She always loved the beach and I believe it was her safe place. Rest in peace and enjoy the time with every one above - you deserve it. “ I met Gail at church when I first moved up here. She took me under her wing and would refer to me as her lil sis and she was my big sis. What a role model and inspiration she has been in my life. Such a devoted woman of faith. My condolences to Paul, Paige and Kiel. Glad to know she is dancing in heaven and walking with Jesus.

“ I thank God for Gail's love for her family, love for the Bible and prayer, love for the ocean, and love for her Lord and Savior. She was a steady, kind, gentle, encourager who listened well and loved faithfully. Gail - I can't wait to see you again, someday, standing/kneeling before the throne, celebrating forever together!

My deepest sympathies to all who loved her, especially her family. I ache for your loss - she was such a treasure and loved you three so dearly...Sharon Gamble

“ *A long battle has been won,
Celebration is at hand
God has called you home
I am delighted for you my friend
As you watch the Angels
come to bring you home,
His Joy overtakes you,
no more struggle, no need
to fight , your pain is gone,
Just His unsurprising Peace,
His Glory, His Face.
They now take you to Jesus, as He anxiously awaits to Welcome you Home with a Hug and a Kiss.
Good and Faithful Servant come
Enter in, He takes you so close, yes
to the Fathers side, What Glory and Honor,
Oh! so hard to behold , all you can do is sing,
Hallelujah, Hallelujah
It is all said and done freedom at last Rest well my friend.*

“ *Gail expressed her true love for The Lord the whole time I new her.
She never lost her want for praising Him and realizing He is in control.
Paul, Paige and Kiel please except my sympathy.

“Gail, I did not know you, and I do not believe we had ever met during my short time here at Liberty. From the stories I hear and the fond memories our fellow agents have of you, losing you has been like a shockwave here at work. To all her personal friends and family, I am sad I did not get to know her, and I am truly sorry for your loss.

“Gail was precious friend, who is now, I believe, in the presence of the Lord, Jesus Christ, her Savior. She is without pain and sorrow, the scriptures tell us, in an enviable place. I will greatly miss her sweet testimony, christian kindness, and fellowship, but i look forward to seeing her again in Glory.

“ Last year Gail and I went for a 2 1/2 hour stroll on the beach near her home. It was easy to see how much she loved this area. She was quite the tour guide on our walk. About a month later we went on a bike ride...my first in many moons and my first ever on real roads! She showed me many beautiful scenes I had never come across. She opened up a new area of exploration for me and I look forward to taking my husband there to watch a gorgeous sunrise with him, too. Gail had so many interesting stories and facts to share that I'll never remember them all, but I will remember my wonderful sister in the Lord who shared them with me.

While she loved this spot near her home, she loved the God Who created it much, much more. She was such an encouragement over the years we knew each other. She was a godly woman who wanted to please her Savior. She was an inspiration to those who visited her, always asking how THEY were doing, and if THEY were comfortable as they sat by her bed. She was a faithful Christian through her last dark months, praising her God and helping others to do the same. I will greatly miss this dear friend who taught me much by her words and example. I loved her so much. My sincere sympathies to all family and friends.

“ Any new church needs people to help be part of that new work of God and I'll never forget the blessing of Gail and her family as part of all those "early years" for Calvary Chapel Seacoast ! A special woman of God now sees Jesus face-to-face ..and the rest of us can continue to see and support her family.
