

Gail F. Fowler

June 28, 1945 - August 25, 2025

Newmarket – Gail F. Fowler, 80, of Newmarket, formerly of Seabrook, passed away peacefully on Monday, August 25, 2025.

She was born in Newburyport, Mass., June 28, 1945 a daughter of the late Lloyd and Maybelle (Merrit) Comley.

Gail worked as a waitress in her earlier years and for 20 years as a cafeteria worker at the Marston School in Hampton. She had made her home in Newmarket since 2001 coming from Seabrook.

She was the wife of the late Jacob S. Fowler who predeceased her in 2007. She was also predeceased by her sister Beverly Demeritt.

Family members include five children, Steve Fowler and his wife, Rose of Orono, ME, Jerry Fowler of Rochester, Jake Fowler, Nicole Fowler and husband Craig Fowler, of Newmarket and Kyle Fowler of Manchester. She also had eleven grandchildren, her brother, Kenneth Demeritt and wife Kathy of Seabrook, two sisters, Judith Bixby of Merrimack, Mass., Anne Upton of Brentwood, NH and several nieces and nephews.

As a young woman, she loved the game of softball and could often be found on the field playing with determination and joy. Her love of athletics carried through her life and one of her greatest pleasures in life was cheering on her children and grandchildren in their own sporting pursuits.

Visiting hours will be from 10 am-12 pm on Tuesday, September 2, 2025 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Services will be at 12pm in the funeral home. Burial will follow in the Hillside Cemetery, Seabrook.

Family and friends are invited to gather and celebrate the beautiful life she lived. Flowers can be sent to Remick & Gendron Funeral Home.

“ Aunt Gail is part of so many of my childhood memories. Every birthday, and holidays of my youngest years, and thanksgiving and Christmas's following throughout my life. She and her family loved to gather for barbecue's so we could all get together. I remember her beautiful crocheting and knitting clearly. I will always remember her fondly and the love she had for her family. Rest in Peace Aunt Gail.
