“ I am so very sorry to hear of George's passing, when we were young we were together constantly, but sadly lost touch in recent years. George was always such a fun guy growing up and all the ladies thought he was just so handsome, which he was ! Life takes many turns but it is always sad to lose contact with those that we love, no matter what the reasons.....may God surround George with his love and may he finally find the peace and comfort he has been searching for. Our family has lost another member who will be missed dearly <3 <3 Rest in peace dear George ~ until we meet again <3 Sending lots of love and prayers.....

“ So sorry for your loss, Temple, Brandy, Mark & Keith. Though I had not seen him in over 20 years, Uncle George was frequently on my mind. He was always a good person to me. He opened his home to me when I was trying to save some money to get out there on my own for the first time in my life. He was always available to help and never questioned the circumstances (remember our trip to Hampton Beach in the back of a special car, Temp?). In my mind, he was a rebel with a winning smile. He will be missed.
