“ My memories of high school are filled with wide smiles and hellos from George every time I walked down the hall way. I would always yell, "Hey George" and he would always respond with, "Hey George to you too!" A wonderful man, a great family, a terrific father and a terrible loss. How lucky he was to have all those years with his adoring wife. You will be missed. Sincerely, George Hosker-Bouley

Fran, Danny and David. I was so sorry to read of George's passing this morning in the Seacoast Online newspaper site. He was a wonderful man and I fondly remember seeing him regularly in the hallways at Exeter High when I was a student there. I believe, your wedding to George, Fran, was the first wedding I ever attended. I'd have been 9 or 10. And I remember our chats whenever he came with Fran to visit my parents, when they lived in Exeter and then Kingston and I was there, visiting from Michigan. A sad time, but so many fond memories. My thoughts and prayers go out to you.
