“ George, we will miss your jokes, your laughter and frustration of the Red Sox and the Patriots, your karaoke version of Mack the Knife when you took the house down we will never forget it, you could have filled in for Bobby Darin any day. George our friend rest in peace we will miss you dearly Love Kevin and Jean Sheehan

“ George was a great person to talk sports with. He knew it all about the Red Sox and Patriots and, of course, lottery scratch tickets. We all enjoyed his coming in to Rite Aid and we will miss him...peace to you, George.
