“ *We are devastated with the news that our dear friend ,Gerry, has passed away. He was a man who loved life and lived it to the fullest. His interests varied from deep sea fishing to the love of automobiles. He enjoyed travelling with his loving partner Erika. He will be sadly missed by his morning coffee buddies. We offer our prayers to Erika and his loving family.

I was shocked to hear of Jerry's passing. My husband and I lived next store to Jerry on Ocean Blvd. He was kind, caring and always helpful if he could. I'm sure he is happy in Heaven and watching over his family. I will keep Jerry in my prayers and his whole family during this journey.
