

Gerald G. Rowe

April 16, 1933 - February 8, 2014

Hampton – Gerald G. Rowe, 80, of Seabrook, died Saturday, February 8, 2014 at the Oceanside Skilled Nursing Center in Hampton.

He was born in Newburyport, MA, April 16, 1933 and was a son of the late Charles and Frances (Fowler) Rowe.

Mr. Rowe was raised in Newburyport. He was a veteran of the U.S. Navy and proudly served his country during the Korean War. After the service, he and his wife of over 54 years, Helen (Frost) Rowe, settled in Seabrook to raise their family.

Gerald was self-employed fisherman for many years, worked construction for a time, and most recently worked as a driver for the Yankee Cooperative at Seabrook Beach. He loved fishing, especially with his family, and had owned many boats over the years. Above all else, Gerald was a family man whose life revolved around his wife and children. He will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him.

In addition to his wife Helen, of Seabrook, he is survived by his sons, Clifford of Worcester, MA and Donald and his wife Anna of Gambrills, MD; his daughter Darlene Gonzalez of Sanford, ME; his sisters, Virginia Young and her husband Roy of Hampton and Alicia Rowe of Irvington, AL and his 5 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

Gerald was predeceased by his sons, Jerry M. Rowe and Kevin C. Rowe and his brother Charles Rowe.

There are not enough words to express our appreciation to the Oceanside Nursing Home, especially the Francoeur Unit. The family is deeply grateful for the love and care they have provided our family over the years.

Visiting hours will be from 4 to 7 P.M on Thursday, February 13, 2014 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH. A graveside service will be held at 11 AM on Friday in the Hillside Cemetery, Seabrook. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Lewy Body Dementia Association, 912 Killian Hill Road, S.W., Lilburn, GA 30047.
