“ I remember it was by Centennial year. It was homecoming days at the Seabrook elementary school. She was in a clam shocking contest with my father Pent Marshall and Walter Randell and she got first place. She beat the both of them. She used to work with my mom and dad Pent Marshall and Hazel Marshall. at South's clam house on S. Main St. she always had a smile...

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this heartbreaking time. I remember so much about my Aunt Gert, and my Uncle Bernie, they were truly a couple that's marriage was solid in every way possible. While Uncle Bernie was always the funny one, Aunt Gert was like the solid rock in the entire back road family. We could always count on her. Her door was always opened to all of us. Out of everyone she reminds me most of Gramp Homan. We will miss you, but we will all be together soon, Love you, Liz
