“ From the family of the late Frank Morgan, for whom Trudy Schreiber was the love of his life. Trudy endeared herself to my family, including my two (then) young boys who have never forgotten her good cheer and courage in dealing with her disabilities. She always had a hearty laugh and a twinkle in her eye, even when speech became difficult for her. A lovely spirit imprisoned in a broken body, she nevertheless enriched the last years of my brother's life. Rest in peace, Trudy, you've worked hard for it.

“ We had the pleasure of getting to know Trudy when we visited with her in the Nursing home. We enjoyed talking and singing in German together. We always had a good laugh when she found a word that she could say in German! Her face would light up when we mentioned her favorite German dishes. We will miss seeing her happy smile when we walked into the Nursing home. Tschuess Trudy!!!
