He went on to become a pipefitter by trade, working 13 years with Grinnell as a piping superintendent and later General Electric as a field engineer in piping operations, retiring in 1993. Glen was a member of Plumbers and Steamfitters Local 716 and longtime member of the First Congregational Church of Hampton. He was an avid baseball fan who enjoyed fishing and hunting in his younger years, but his greatest joy was spending time with grandchildren, especially his time with Matthew doing yard work. He loved helping people and always put others needs before his own.

He shared 29 years of marriage with his late wife, Barbara A. (Watkins) Simmons who predeceased him in 1998.

Surviving family members include his children, Wayne Simmons and his wife Anne of Maricopa, AZ and Ann Nerney and her husband Scott of Candia; grandchildren, Elizabeth and Matthew Nerney both from Candia and Josh Simmons of Madison, WI; sister, Flora Bowden and nephew, Lou Wellington.

“ He was the best uncle, and always reminded me of my dad Lloyd, his brother. He was kind, generous, full of stories of our family. He traveled all the way to Baltimore for my graduation from graduate school. He said my dad would have wanted him to be there in his stead. I will miss you, my dear uncle Glen.

“ So sorry to hear Great Uncle Glenn has passed, Ann. He was always so kind and thoughtful. When Paul and I first moved back from college and lived in NH, he and Barbara picked me up one day and showed me around their favorite spots of the seacoast and took me out to eat!
